Reasons that support your application as guest student:

Please note:

Persons who wish to attend individual courses at the Bonn-Rhein-Sieg University of Applied Sciences can be admitted as guest students upon request within the framework of the available study opportunities. Proof of a qualification is not required. It is compulsory to indicate the desired courses/subjects.

Admission as a guest student is subject to a fee of Euros 100,00 according to the Hochschulgebührengesetz (Higher Education Fees Act).

Guest students are not enrolled, they become part of the university through admission and for the duration of admission without being members. They are not entitled to take examinations. They can only receive a certificate of attendance at courses.
