Invitation to apply for scholarships under the DAAD-Programme PROMOS 2022: Study Abroad / Internships Abroad

Hochschule Bonn-Rhein-Sieg University of Applied Sciences awards PROMOS scholarships to students who plan to study or intern abroad funded by the DAAD.

PROMOS scholarships are given based on professional and personal qualification. The monthly lump sum depends on the country of destination.

Target Group

Regularly enrolled students of German universities can apply if they:

- a) have German citizenship or
- b) are equal to Germans according to § 8 paragraph 1 number 2 ff., paragraph 2, 2a and 3 BAföG (in this context the wording of the law applies, to be found at: www.das-neue-bafoeg.de) or
- (c) are non-German students and graduates enrolled in a course of study at a German higher education institution with the aim of obtaining a degree from a German higher education institution

For non-German nationals, stays in the home country are excluded.

The home country is deemed to be the country in which the student has been predominantly residing for at least five years.

Minimum Length of Stay, Scholarship Period and Deadlines for Applications

The minimum length of a stay abroad is three months; this may be shortened to a minimum of two months for final theses. A bachelor/master thesis undertaken neither at a university, a research institute or a company can only be considered as an exception if the department fully supports the project and students provide a detailed time schedule, which will later serve as the basis for quality control. Grants can only be awarded once per study cycle (bachelor or master). In the case of two-semester stays abroad starting in the winter semester, applications will be accepted for the first (winter) semester only.

The deadline for applications for a stay abroad beginning or ending in the summer semester 2022 is 30 November 2021.

The deadline for applications for a stay abroad from the beginning of the winter semester 2021/2022 is 10 April 2022.

Funding Details

Subject to fund allocation by the DAAD grants are available for 1-3 months and/or a lump sum towards travel allowances for the following stays abroad that are recognised as part of the respective bachelor's or master's degree programmes:

- Grants for a study semester abroad
Primarily at partner universities (a study semester at one of the partner universities under the Erasmus+ programme can only be funded, if the agreed number of places under the Erasmus contract has already been filled or a new agreement can't be established).
- Grants for an Internship/Practical Period outside Europe*
Internships abroad must last at least 3 months to be eligible. It is not necessary to have secured an internship place at the point of application. This information needs to be provided by 31 January 2022 for an internship starting at the beginning of the summer semester 2022 or by 30 August 2022 for an internship starting at the winter semester 2022/23.

Internships for which specific DAAD internship programmes can be used may not be funded in Promos. Information on this can be found at:

<https://www.daad.de/de/im-ausland-studieren-forschen-lehren/praktika-im-ausland/praktikumsvermittlung/>

- Grants for writing a Bachelor/Master thesis abroad
Primarily for stays outside Europe*, in particular developing countries and threshold countries.
- Lump sum for travel expenses (only outside Europe*)
Students who will not study at one of our partner universities must clarify the recognition of their courses with their department before applying for the scholarship.

If applicants already receive grants from third parties, the grant amounts may be adjusted accordingly.
