MASTERTHESIS

Objectives and Target Group

The executive MBA programme Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and Non-Governmental Organisation (NGO) Management offers an interdisciplinary and in-depth study of two vibrant and expanding fields and is as a joint venture of the Department of Management Sciences in Rheinbach and the International Center for Sustainable Development (IZNE) at HBRS in Sankt Augustin.

While sharpening their profiles regarding management and leadership positions in NGOs, this programme also provides its students with a specialized focus on CSR relevant topics.

The MBA programme invites people from various countries of origin and diverse professional backgrounds who want to enhance their management skills, while participating in an academic, interdisciplinary and intercultural exchange. The programme addresses itself to professionals who are planning to enter management positions in Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) as well as professionals with different backgrounds who are now looking for advancements in the area of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR).

We want our Graduates

- To take part in tackling global challenges
- To be comfortable using state-of-the-art management methods to implement corporate social responsibility effectively and efficiently
- To establish an interdisciplinary and interinstitutional network of national and international experts
- To develop sustainable economic systems in a globalized world
- To not only be excellent in what they do, but to develop real passion for their work
